NEWS @ AGJS

Issue 3: Friday 27th September 2019

@agjsschool

Thank you to all the parents who attended our Coffee Mornings this week. It was so lovely to see so many of you and we do hope you found the content useful. We hope you are also enjoying looking over the Passports, Boarding Passes and Worldly Wise booklets with your child.

Those who attended the Coffee Mornings will have heard that Ardleigh Green Learning Federation is looking for a Parent Governor from both the Infant and Junior school. A letter will soon be coming home regarding this. If you are interested, please do let Mr Morris know.

As part of our Harvest celebration this year, we will be holding an assembly in school and we would like to donate harvest gifts to the Salvation Army for their work with the homeless. Please can you support us by sending in tins or packet food only, NO FRESH PRODUCE. Anything that can be stored is suitable including soups, beans, vegetables, meat and fish etc. It would be really useful if you could also check the shelf life. We do hope you feel able to support this worthy cause.

With many thanks for your continued support, Mr Morris and Mrs Johnson
